Principals Message

This week we are celebrating Book Week and students have been making more of an effort to read as much as possible. All students K-6 will be participating in the Forbes Birth to Kinder Reading Day on Friday. K-2 students will watch a performance at the Forbes Town Hall and years 3-6 students will participate in Book Trivia at Forbes North Public School. It is sure to be a fun – filled day. Don't forget students can dress up as a book character or as something to do with the Book Week theme 'Read across the universe'. Students will need a packed recess and lunch. NO LUNCH ORDERS.

Have a great week.

Regards ,

Carmel McMurray

DAFFODIL DAY

On Thursday 22nd August, tomorrow, we will be celebrating Daffodil Day. Students are encouraged to wear yellow and bring in a gold coin donation for the Cancer Council.

NETWASTE VISIT

Today, Wednesday 21st August, students had a NetWaste visit participating in a "Rubbish = Resource" workshop. It was a wonderful afternoon. More pictures in next week's newsletter.

All Welcome

Students will be able to meet one of the authors from 'The Bum Book' on Friday 23rd August at the Forbes Reading Day. This book actually started in a school when five boys were bragging about what their bums could do and a teacher overheard them. She thought it would make a great idea for a book. Facts, fun and a healthy dose of imagination, this poetry book will appeal to parents, teachers and students of all ages. The Bum Book really will put 'bums on seats'. The illustrator is 'Cartoon Dave' from channel 10's 'Toasted TV'. He is their resident cartoonist and went to school with one of the authors.

If your child would like a signed copy of the book they are $13. Just bring the money on Friday to the Reading Day.
