Students enjoyed the fun of the "Book Fair", dressing as characters from their favourite stories.

HOME READERS

Please remember your home readers.

All students take home a book to read aloud for homework.

You need to remember to have your child read this book and return it to school to exchange for another book.

The book is not to keep and books cost the school a minimum of $10 per reader.

Reading is the most important thing your child can learn. Please assist this process by regularly exchanging books to read at home.
